Barbara Lewis, Principal and Owner of The Lewis Design Group has more than 25 years of interior design experience and is critically acclaimed for a classic yet current style that has been featured at many show houses, including the 2022 Kips Bay Decorator Show House Palm Beach. With a lifelong passion for design that dates back to her childhood (she is the daughter of a master furniture craftsman) and an education from The New York School of Interior Design, Barbara is known for designing elegant interiors, which maintain the delicate balance between current trends and timeless style.

The Lewis Design Group has earned acclaim for six prestigious show house designs including "The Closet Reimagined" for the Kips Bay Decorator Show House Palm Beach, which earned countless accolades and the cover of Modern Luxury Palm Beach. Other notable show house designs include the feminine "Spa Sanctuary" for Holiday House Hamptons, a classic blue and white homage to Albert Hadley for the 25th Anniversary of Rooms with a View in Southport, CT and a "Mad Men" era Bar Lounge for Holiday House NYC, as well as the first Hamptons Virtual Show House and a HGTV x Holiday House Show House featuring a colorful project for a Grand Millennial client.

The Lewis Design Group offers a boutique, full-service client approach. In close collaboration with the client, Barbara Lewis is able to define the style of her client's vision, whether it be classical, transitional, or Grand Millennial. With a warm and caring personality, Barbara Lewis understands that the design process should be enjoyable and inspiring. The Lewis Design Group has designed private residences from Manhattan to Laguna Beach and has design studios in Glen Cove, New York, as well as Stamford, Connecticut and Juno Beach, Florida.
